INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MENOMINEE

PIONEER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

MARCH 2019

Leadership Training

The Northwoods Cluster of Winnebago Presbytery will be holding a leadership training event on Saturday, March 2nd. It will be an all-day event. Elders and deacons from both churches are invited. We have attended these in the past and they have been a time for meaningful fellowship and learning with fellow presbyterians. If interested, please contact Pastor Jon or your deacon moderator.

New Book Study

Our church, like many so others within our denomination and across the country, faces declining numbers and resources. In our new study, we will focus through Can Our Church Live by Alice Mann. This book examines the question on many of our minds. The pastor will be leading a six week study beginning in March. If you have wondered or worried about the fate of our church, this is the study for you. If interested please contact Pastor Jon so he can schedule the class with the participants.

Daylight Savings

Daylight savings will take place on Sunday, March 10, 2019. Be sure to set your clocks forward one hour!

DEADLINE for the April 2019 Issue of The Presbyterian Bridge is MARCH 20th. To ensure that your article will be included, please submit your typed article and materials to your church office on time!

A CALL TO COMMUNITY

We live in a paradoxical time. In no other time in history have we had as many ways to connect with others locally and globally. Advances in technology has made it possible to fly across the world in hours instead of days.

We are connected via the internet, Twitter, Facebook, and video conferencing. Cable television and global news outlets give us glimpses of what is happening across our planet. National economies are intertwined so that a trade war between nations can affect the whole world.

There has never been a time such as this when humans have been so connected. And yet, we are also in a time when we often feel disconnected and isolated from one another. We divide ourselves into factions and parties. We uplift the individual and personal identity while cheering at the shattering of norms, traditions and institutions. We expect God and others to accept our personal life choices instead of building our lives around the grace and understanding of God.

And yet in the midst of our inconsistency, God still calls us forth to be his body, his bride, the universal and collective Church of Jesus Christ. This calling existed in the Garden of Eden. It existed for Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It existed for the children of Israel caught in bondage in Egypt.

It existed for the judges and prophets. It existed for the disciples and the early church. It existed for the Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox, and Protestant churches. It existed for our spiritual mothers and fathers. And it exists for us today.

In these divided times, God's call to community is just as strong as it has ever been, but it can be dulled by the competing voices of our culture and world. In the myriad of choices we are presented, it is confusing to know which call to answer. However, the call of God remains to his faithful people.

The Church, the people of God, in all time and in all places is called into community with one another. We have broken into different denominations and groups in order to understand certain aspects of God better. No denomination or individual church has a complete picture of God, but by looking at the different perspectives of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, we gain a fuller glimpse.

This is why I am so thankful for our Lenten Simple Suppers where we join together with other sister churches for a simple meal and lesson. By answering the call to carry our cross together with our fellow brethren, we gain a richer picture of Christ crucified for we share ourselves and our understanding with those that Christ died for. In sharing our different traditions, we see Christ with more definition and clarity as well as understand our own unique tradition and perspective as Presbyterians.

In March, I will also be starting a four session sermon series on The Call to Community. I will examine our Presbyterian Reformed understanding of community as connectional, confessional, covenantal, and missional. It is my hope that by participating in both our Lenten journey with our fellow churches as well as identifying our unique understanding as Presbyterians, we will be able to appreciate better our need for one another and the Church. I look forward to this journey with you as we once again set our sights towards Jerusalem and Calvary and walk in the light of the Lord.

In Christ,

Jon

Presbyterian Women

The next monthly meeting for the Presbyterian Women will be on March 7th at 10:00 a.m. in the Library. Please feel free to join us.

Mission News

We will continue to collect personal items for men, women, and teens. These items will be donated to a Mission of their choice. Please place your donations in the basket in the Gathering Room.

The loose coin offering will be collected every third Sunday in our offering plates. We will announce the designation at the end of November. Thank You.

Book Club

The next meeting of Book club will be March 28th at 6:30 p.m. We meet at the Harbors in the fourth-floor library. This month's selection is Lincoln's Last Trial by Dan Abrams. This is a true story of Abraham Lincoln's last murder trial, a strange case in which he had a deep personal involvement, and which was played out in the nation's newspapers as he began his presidential campaign.

If you would like to expand your reading habits, we would love to have you join us. If you need a ride, please call Janet Johnson at 863-7496.

Mortgage Paydown

Thank you to those of you who have assisted in helping to pay down the church's mortgage. So far, $43,896 has been raised. Many thanks to our anonymous donor who gave a $20,000 challenge.

Coffee Hour

Debbie Hofer will be scheduling coffee hour hosts and making sure we have enough supplies. We will be posting who the hosts will be each month in the bulletin and the messenger. If there is a week with no hosts, there will be no coffee hour that morning. Debbie will be calling members soon to fill in where needed. If anyone has questions or would like to serve on a special occasion, please call Debbie at 906-863-3048.

Reminders

The first Sunday of each month is the Food Pantry Collection. One of the Deacons gather up the donations and distribute to the local food pantries.

The loose coin offering is collected the third Sunday of each month. All dollar bills and coin are donated to a special mission of our choice.

Anyone wishing to sign up for Flowers or Coffee Hour can do so on the bulletin board in the Gathering Room. The sign-up sheets are for a three-month period but if there is a special date that isn't there and you would like to reserve it, please contact the church office and it will be reserved on the calendar.

If you know of someone who would like to be added to our current homebound church list, please contact the church office as we update it frequently at 906-863-3889. A Deacon will be contacting the individual to setup home visits and discuss their needs.

Thank You

Dear Pastor Jon and congregation,

Thank you for inviting us to share our music with you once again. It truly was a joy and a blessing to worship together with you this morning.

Your generous donation is greatly appreciated and 100% will be used in future ministry opportunities. May God continue to use you to spread the “Good News” in your community and surrounding areas.

*Until we meet again,
Voices of Peace Ministries*

Thank You

Presbyterian Women,

“I would like to thank you for your continued support of my work with refugees from Burma. Your gift greatly enables me to work with the marginalized Karen people of Saint Paul as well as spread the Gospel among those living in Tham Hinn Camp and in the seminaries I guest teach at in Burma. I am thankful for both your financial and your prayer support.”

*Love and blessings,
Joanna*

Book Sale & Bake Sale

Delta Kappa Gamma (DKG) will be holding their annual book sale in the Galilean Room on April 26 from 4-7 and on April 27 from 8-12. This is an opportunity for Pioneer to have a bake sale as we have in the past.

In order to do that we need your help by donating some bakery. The people who come to the book sale know there are some very good bakers in our congregation and look forward to picking up some of these “goodies” when they come to look for books.

Please consider making a donation of bread, candy, cookies, pies, bars, or any other pastry, or jelly or jam. Drop them off on Friday April 26th in the kitchen. If you are not a baker this is a great opportunity to buy some very tasty baked goods, but come early as they go quickly.

Save the Date!

Palm Sunday
April 14, 2019

The Outreach/Fellowship committee will be providing a brunch after the service on Palm Sunday. The committee has done this the past two years and it has been very well attended. Ellis Langjahr will be planning our menu which will be similar to last year’s. More details on the menu will be in the April newsletter.

Many Thanks

To all who made a donation to the Joanne Peterson fundraising brunch. Through your generosity our congregation raised $534.10 to help Joanne in her missionary work.
